

All About Town...A Talk Series

Saturday, October 5, 2019

Warrenton, NC

- |             |  |  |
|-------------|--|--|
| 9:30        | Post Office Sign DedicationPreservation Warrenton and the Warren County Arts Council partner in dedicating the sign outside of the Warrenton Post Office recognizing the historical and cultural significance of the New Deal Mural painted in 1937 by Alice Dinnens | Warrenton Post Office143 North Main Street           |
| 10:00-10:40 | "The Family of Quilts"Presenter: Portia Hawes /Heritage Quilters  | Warren County Courthouse109 South Main Street        |
| 11:00-11:40 | "All in the Family: Diomed, Sir Achie and Henry from the 1780 Epsom Derby to the Great Match Race of 1823"Presenter: James P. Beckwith  | Warren County Memorial Library119 South Front Street |
| 12:00-2:00  | Open –Lunch, Shop, Walkabout  |  |
| 2:00-2:40   | Vaughan: A Suburb of Macon and Much MorePresenter: Dr. James W. Clark, Jr.  | Presbyterian Church304 North Main Street             |
| 3:00-3:40   | "The Future of the Plummer Hook and Ladder Company" and Town Hall TourPresenter: Mayor Gardner and Ann Harris   | Town Hall119 East Market Street                      |
| 4:00-5:00   | Celebration Reception  | Jacob Holt House122 South Bragg Street               |

"Preserving the Past for the Future"

